12:30 - “Building Partnerships – Using an Integrative Thinking Approach”

Brady Wilson, co-founder of Juice Inc, will lead an interactive session that will highlight new ideas and engage the group in discussions and experiences to explore:

- What is partnering and why is it critical to the success of your municipality
- How our default approach can compromise a successful partnership
- How to shape your responses in challenging situations with councillors and constituents
- Share insights around successfully partnering with Council Members
- Establish goals for building a strong partnerships in your leadership circle (Mayor, Council, SLT and your Community)

Listen to stories from other leaders and contribute your own experiences

2:00 - Council Orientations – Sharing Successful Approaches

An opportunity to exchange Council Orientation practices that have proven successful in the past and how to insert the “CAO perspective” regarding information to be conveyed.

2:30 - Wrap up
